

Ad 2 DC: Get involved. Get noticed.

Ad 2 DC is a local organization under the larger Ad 2 National, and a direct affiliate of the DC Ad Club.

Since 1947, Ad 2 has been a group of people helping people in personal and professional growth and in bettering our communities. Ad 2 is a group of young, passionate, forward thinking and forward moving people that make a difference.

Ad 2, an affiliate of the American Advertising Federation, is a non-profit organization of advertising professionals ages 32 and younger. Ad 2 represents the future of advertising through its ability to unite young, talented professionals across the country as one group. Together, Ad 2 creates a means for up and coming professionals in the industry to gain the contacts, education and leadership opportunities they need to become tomorrow's industry leaders.

Today Ad 2 consists of over 1,000 members and 25 chapters nationwide. Each chapter focuses on meeting the needs of young professionals in their local markets through educational and networking events, public service opportunities and government relations activities.
